

4 Stylish New Tasting Rooms Open in Wine Country

By Carey Sweet on May 25, 2016 2:00 PM

The newest Napa and Sonoma tasting rooms are unveiling some pretty fancy spaces with a range of eclectic themes. Here are some brand new spots that will have you saying, "Sip, sip hooray!"

JCB Tasting Salon and Atelier by JCB

Jean-Charles Boisset is nothing if not whimsically extravagant, and he's lent his Gatsby-esque touch to this over-the-top wine tasting room-slash-fashion and "lifestyle experience." Sip wines then browse the Atelier, a gourmet epicurean paradise for edible baubles such as cheese, caviar, and precious pâtés. Need more? The JCB Touch table is sort of a digital tasting hosts that identifies and explains each glass of wine as you place it on its surface. To drink: JCB N°21 Brut Cremant de Bourgogne. To eat: Rouzaire Coulommiers Brie and Rougie duck foie gras mousse with ice cider. // 6505 Washington St. (Yountville), jbcollection.com.
