When last we checked, there were more than 400 wineries with tasting rooms in the Napa Valley – but it seems there's always room for a few more. If you've already experienced Napa Valley's finest, here are seven new wineries to add to your list.

JCB Tasting Salon. If you've visited Raymond Vineyards in St. Helena, you're familiar with the over-the-top style of proprietor Jean-Charles Boisset. In February, he launched a new tasting salon in Yountville, which "encompasses the unique JCB approach that unites exclusive Napa Valley and French wines, luxury, style, and retail items," all curated in his own lavish taste. Check out the Surrealist Boutique, showcasing luxury goods from around the world, including JCB's custom-designed jewelry collection, candles, and perfumes. Three tasting flights are offered, ranging from $30 to $50.

Adjacent to the tasting salon is Atelier by JCB, a gourmet épicerie featuring both locally sourced and international products. You'll find spices, mustards, honey, olive oil and vinegar from Boisset's winery estates, smoked salmon, caviar, anchovies, truffles, foie gras, terrines, charcuterie, more than 120 cheeses, chocolate, specialty teas, coffees and more. Open daily from 11 am to 7 pm.
